

3RD YALE INTERNATIONAL RHEUMATOLOGY STATE-OF-THE-ART SYMPOSIUM

Do No Harm: Risk Mitigation in Rheumatic Disease Patients

Friday, April 28, 2023— Saturday, April 29, 2023
Maurice R. Greenberg Conference Center, New Haven, CT

In this two-day Yale Symposium, we will bring together a faculty of internationally recognized experts to discuss risk mitigation for rheumatic disease patients. We will also consider the needs of special populations such as underserved, pregnant, and peri-operative patients and the role of vaccination.

VENUE INFORMATION

We are honored to host this year's Rheumatology Symposium at the Maurice R. Greenberg Conference Center. Located at 391 Prospect Street, just to the south of Betts House and steps from New Haven's vibrant downtown, the Greenberg conference center is right at the heart of Yale University.

The structure, designed by the firm of Robert A. M. Stern, former Dean of the Yale School of Architecture, is in a traditional style to complement the Betts House. As a "green" building, the Center's design, construction, and operations conform to benchmarks set by the U.S. Green Building Council and is LEED Gold certified.

Lectures will be held in the Greenberg's amphitheater. Friday evening's dinner will take place in the Greenberg Dining Room. Designed with cutting-edge technology and intimate spaces, the Center is ideal for hybrid programs. Our goal is to provide the best experience to both our virtual and in-person attendees.

Free, on-site parking is available to guests. If you have any questions regarding the program, please contact us at cme@yale.edu.
